Gala awards the Human Act Prize 2023

Last night, December 11, at Hoan Kiem Lake Theater (Hanoi), the Human Act Prize 2023 award ceremony took place, organized by Nhan Dan Newspaper, with the participation of the Ministry of Labor, Movement - Invalids and Social Affairs, Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment, Ministry of Science and Technology, and VCCorp Joint Stock Company. The event aims to honor excellent projects and ideas that make positive contributions to society through initiatives that bring long-term and sustainable effects. Attending the ceremony was Chairman of the National Assembly's Culture and Education Committee Nguyen Dac Vinh.

From the 35 project profiles that entered the Final Round, the Jury selected the 28 best projects to award prizes. All community projects deserve to be honored, no matter how large or small. Not only the winning projects, the remaining projects all show the persistent efforts of individuals and organizations that are still quietly contributing to the community.

The awards honor projects in categories such as Timely Projects, Promising Projects, Enduring Projects, Inspirational Projects, and Sustainable Projects. And the highest category is the Human Act Prize awarded to Vietnam Dairy Products Joint Stock Company, Community Fund for Disaster Prevention, L'Oréal Vietnam, Norwegian People's Aid (NPA) Vietnam and Joint Stock Company TH Group.

The Human Act Prize award ceremony not only stops at the awards night but also continues in many different ways by spreading many good stories, many humanitarian actions, and community projects. copper is still unknown. Thereby contributing to motivating and becoming a resource, sharing and solidarity between people in the same community.
