"Human Act Prize" is an annual award honoring individuals and organizations that have made positive contributions to society through prestigious community initiatives and projects, bringing long-term and sustainable effects. The award is organized by Nhan Dan Newspaper, with the direction of the Ministry of Labor, War Invalids and Social Affairs, the Ministry of Natural Resources and Environment, and the Ministry of Science and Technology.

Gala awards "Human Act Prize - Community Action Prize".

Mr. Le Quoc Minh, Member of the Party Central Committee, Editor-in-Chief of Nhan Dan Newspaper, Deputy Head of the Central Propaganda Department, Chairman of the Vietnam Journalists Association, Head of the Award Organizing Committee said: "Out of nearly 130 applications, Exam entries sent back, there are many individuals, organizations, and units that started their journey quietly several decades ago. They work, test and adjust, and worry about ways to improve their programs/projects to become more systematic and professional, to create even stronger impacts, thereby bringing many changes to an area, or simply helping individual lives. Their concern, steadfast belief and enthusiasm are endless inspiration for us - the organizers of the award."

The submissions for the award cover many areas of life, from macro to micro. Besides projects from domestic individuals and businesses, there are also many projects from international organizations.

From the 35 project profiles that entered the Final Round, the Jury selected the best projects to award prizes. The Human Act Prize's award categories are evaluated based on criteria that ensure impact, sustainability, commitment, creativity and community spread.
