Human Act Prize 2023 Gala Night is an event honoring organizations and individuals who have contributed to the community through prestigious and enduring social projects, bringing great value.

19:36: Timely Project Category

1. Volunteer Social Platform Project

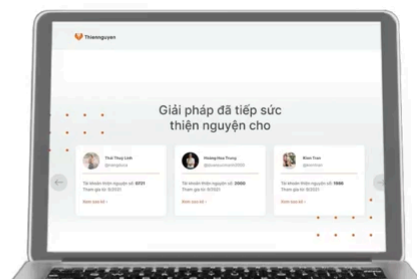

The volunteer social platform built and operated by Military Commercial Joint Stock Bank (MBBank) is the first volunteer social network in Vietnam, created to connect generous souls with people in difficult circumstances. difficulties through a transparent volunteer account of revenues and expenses.

The project was born at a time when social trust was shaken because of large-scale but non-transparent charity donation campaigns. The volunteer social platform has promptly regained trust through a completely transparent operating mechanism.

Although the "Charity" application cannot stop the natural storm, the "statement storm" will no longer be a problem for charity workers.

Power is activated from community trust:

- More than 400 billion VND in support
- More than 800 individuals and organizations participated in fundraising
- Nearly 1 million registered members
- More than 1800 campaigns deployed"

7:00 p.m.: Sharing from guests before the awards ceremony

Mr. Vuong Vu Thang - Chairman of the Board of Directors of VCCorp Joint Stock Company shared: The program is extremely practical and necessary to honor programs that are useful to the community. There are units that have silently volunteered for 15 years without being honored once. Human Act Prize will do just that. I am impressed with all the nominated projects, but pay special attention to the TH Group project, which changes the nature of the dairy industry, making a great contribution to the future of Vietnamese children.

Artist Xuan Bac: When I was invited to participate in this program, I was very happy because I am always ready to introduce faces that need to be honored. In life, there are people who openly work for the community, but there are people who work quietly. This award was created to honor organizations and individuals who are quietly working for the community. I believe that the careful preparation of the award organizers will be successful. These programs need to be more organized and replicated.

Present at the ceremony, MC Thu Hoai shared: When I accepted the invitation to participate in this program, I didn't think too much and accepted immediately. This is a program with great humanitarian value. I myself have adopted 8 children. I find this program very close to me. When I attend this program, I want to learn what people have done to spread and inspire more.

Sharing the same feelings, Editor, MC Minh Trang - Founder of Box Hao Hac, Hao Hac Village expressed: I always want the business's activities to bring value to the community. My business currently has 8 deaf people in charge of many tasks. Although he has a hearing disability, he has excellent hands and abilities.

I have been fortunate to accompany the Human Act Prize since the first days. I am especially impressed with projects aimed at children such as the Puppet Theater project that helps children access sensitive information in an interesting way, receive it effectively and apply it successfully in the future.

6:00 p.m. - 6:50 p.m.: Guests excitedly attend the awards ceremony, the atmosphere gradually heats up
