Human Act Prize 2023 was initiated by Nhan Dan Newspaper in an effort to find pioneering units and individuals who dare to take the first steps on a journey full of difficulties and challenges. After more than 3 years of incubating ideas and 70 days of intensive activities, the Human Act Prize 2023 has reached the end of its first year's journey with the theme "Pioneering Imprint".

Comrade Lai Xuan Mon, Member of the Party Central Committee, Standing Deputy Head of the Central Propaganda Department awarded the Human Act Prize to 5 excellent projects and initiatives.

In the first year of organization, the Human Act Prize 2023 had 129 applications submitted for the award. Besides projects from individuals and domestic businesses, there are also many projects from international organizations. Many projects have been implemented persistently for decades with high commitment and sustainability. In addition, there are also small but extremely creative projects that are pervasive and have great impact.

According to the Organizing Committee, to ensure the transparency of the award, all participating projects must go through a strict application process, including requirements to provide detailed content and documents. Right from the preliminary round, reporters directly met and made many field trips to learn about the project, telling the community the stories, methods and models of each project, as well as as the values that the community benefits from these projects.

From the 35 project profiles that entered the Final Round, the Jury selected the best projects to award prizes. The Human Act Prize's award categories are evaluated based on criteria that ensure impact, sustainability, commitment, creativity and community spread.

At the awards ceremony, the Organizing Committee awarded the Community Idea Award to 3 projects: "Medicine cabinet for children" of Genestory Joint Stock Company; "Supporting cancer patients" by the Community Medicine Organization; "Stories of eternal people" by
