for several decades. before. They work, test and adjust, and worry about ways to improve their programs/projects to become more systematic and professional, to create even stronger impacts, thereby bringing many changes to an area, or simply helping individual lives. Their concern, steadfast belief and enthusiasm are endless inspiration for us - the organizers of the award ."

Mr. Le Quoc Minh shared about the meaning of the Community Action Award program

" To move towards sustainable development for the whole society, we need the cooperation of many people, many organizations, and many businesses. And we hope that the values of the Action Award Because the community is trying to promote, it will create inspiration for the whole society to participate. Any action for the community, no matter how big or small, will contribute to the greater goal that everyone can achieve. we all want - that is a quality and sustainable life for the whole society ",

" Don't hesitate when doing good deeds, don't hesitate when spreading good stories in life ," Mr. Le Quoc Minh emphasized.

At the age of 86, Mr. Phan Dien, former Politburo member and former Standing Secretary of the Secretariat, still travels to people's homes in flooded areas in the Central region to send relief gifts, or check on sources. Check to see if there is enough clean water to supply people. Mr. Phan Dien started working for this community 15 years ago. He said he never thought he was old, never thought he was at retirement age. He shared that in 2007, the Central region suffered heavy damage due to floods. Realizing that people in the Central region suffered property damage every year due to storms and floods, he campaigned to establish the "Central Region Natural Disaster Prevention Support Fund", later renamed the "Community Prevention Fund". natural disasters" and expanding its scope to the whole country. Today, he is one of the people honored in the highest category - Human Act Prize.
