The forms of expression are diverse, modern, and actively use new traditional means (for products/works in the video clip category). The works/products of foreigners demonstrate a deep, positive, and multi-faceted vision of Vietnam's foreign affairs activities, of Vietnam's relations with countries in the region and the world, of Vietnam's attractiveness as an interesting destination, of Vietnam's history and long-standing culture.

Notably, in addition to the popular languages participating in the Awards in previous years, this year there are new languages such as Arabic, Italian, and Israeli in the categories of foreign printed newspapers and electronic newspapers; Uzbek and Sinhala in the categories of books.

Through 2 preliminary and final rounds, the Final Council selected 109 best works/products to award prizes, including 10 first prizes, 20 second prizes, 30 third prizes, 49 consolation prizes for 10 categories.

The 10th National Foreign Information Awards Ceremony will take place at the Hanoi Opera House, No. 1 Trang Tien, Hoan Kiem District, Hanoi at 8:00 p.m. tonight, Tuesday, December 3, 2024.

Attending the ceremony were Party and State leaders, and representatives of central ministries, departments, and branches...

The ceremony was held not only to honor the award-winning authors/groups of authors, but also to look back on a successful year of foreign information work, which has contributed to telling attractive and vivid stories about Vietnam in all fields.

The 10th National Foreign Information Awards Ceremony was broadcast live on VTV1 Channel of Vietnam Television.
